

Candidatures of Latvia and its Representatives for the UN system bodies

Published: 03.07.2021.

Broader representation in the international organizations is a prerequisite for the implementation of interests of Latvia's foreign policy. Latvia has submitted its candidatures for the following seats and posts at international organisations:

Latvia has presented its candidature to the non-permanent seat of the UN Security Council for the term 2026-2027 at the elections in 2025.

Latvia has presented the candidacy of Dr. Mārtiņš Pāparinskis for election to the International Law Commission for the term 2023-2027 at the elections in 2021.

<https://www.mfa.gov.lv/en/candidatures-latvia-and-its-representatives-un-system-bodies>